The application or petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit from the family member indicating the family member's knowledge of the application or petition and willingness to exercise the parent's visitation during the parent's absence. The application or petition shall also request any change in the visitation schedule necessitated by the assignment.

2. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, a parent who has been granted court-ordered physical care or joint physical care of the parent's minor child may file an application for modification of a decree or a petition for modification of an order regarding child custody, prior to or during the time the parent is serving active duty in the military service of the United States, to temporarily assign the parent's physical care parenting time to a family member of the minor child, as specified by the parent. The application or petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit from the family member indicating the family member's knowledge of the application or petition and willingness to exercise the parent's physical care parenting time during the parent's absence. The application or petition shall also request any change in the physical care parenting time schedule necessitated by the assignment.

3. a. If the active duty of a parent affects the parent's ability or anticipated ability to appear at a regularly scheduled hearing, the court shall provide for an expedited hearing in matters instituted under this section.

b. If the active duty or anticipated active duty of a parent prevents the parent from appearing in person at a hearing, the court shall provide, upon reasonable advance notice, for the parent to present testimony and evidence by electronic means in matters instituted under this section. For the purposes of this paragraph, "electronic means" includes communication by telephone, video teleconference, or the internet.

4. a. The court may grant the parent's request for temporary assignment of visitation or physical care parenting time and any change in the visitation or physical care parenting time schedule requested if the court finds that such assignment of visitation or physical care parenting time is in the best interest of the child.

b. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall ensure all of the following:

(1) That the specified family member is not a sex offender as defined in section 692A.101.

(2) That the specified family member does not have a history of domestic abuse, as defined in section 236.2. (3) That the specified family member does not have a record of founded child or dependent adult abuse.

An order granting assignment of visitation or physical care parenting time under this section does not grant any custodial or parental rights to any person who is not the parent of the child.

6. An order granted under this section may temporarily assign visitation or physical care parenting time that is equal to or less than the visitation or physical care parenting time awarded to the parent whose visitation or physical care parenting time is assigned.

7. The parent whose visitation or physical care parenting time is temporarily assigned shall provide a copy of the order granting assignment of visitation or physical care parenting time to the school and school district of the child to whom the order applies.

9. After a parent completes active duty, if an application for modification of a decree or a petition for modification of an order is filed, the parent's absence due to active duty or the assignment of visitation or physical care parenting time does not constitute a substantial change in circumstances, and the court shall not consider a parent's absence due to that active duty or the assignment of visitation or physical care parenting time in making a determination regarding the best interest of the child relative to such an application or petition filed after a parent completes active duty.

10. As used in this section, "active duty" means active military duty pursuant to orders issued under Tit. 10 of the United States Code.
